ONGOING RESEARCH

- Functional interactions of the posterior medial (PM) system during event processing
 - Analyses of a movie-watching fmri dataset to explore how information flows between PM regions and how connections shift at event transitions.
- Multidimensional event attributes and their weighting in memory
 - Behavioral studies of memory attributes -- different kinds of content and their specificity -- and how they contribute to subjective judgments of memory vividness.
- Temporal dynamics of episodic reinstatement
 - Time-frequency analyses of memory retrieval using EEG data, including the reactivation of distinct event features.
